

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM CG LAW

NOVEMBER 2009

Earlier this year the Toowoomba media reported a Magistrate's Court appearance for drink driving charges and related offences by a Benjamin David Gouldson.

The person involved was NOT Benjamin James Gouldson, Partner at Clifford Gouldson Lawyers.

When the reports were first published we weighed up at the time whether or not to communicate with you all and decided not to draw further attention to the publication because the middle name (David) and age (27) of the offender was published. As a lifetime member of the Toowoomba community we felt the great majority of people would reach the conclusion that the offender wasn't Ben Gouldson of Clifford Gouldson Lawyers.

Knowing Ben the way we do we knew without question that it was merely an unfortunate coincidence.

Despite the time that has passed, reports continue to come back to us that many people mistakenly assumed the offender referred in the publications was our Ben. Without knowing Ben personally, and given that the name is not particularly common, we can understand how the wrong assumption may have been made.

However, given the continuing reports, we felt it necessary to set the record straight.

If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to give us a call to discuss them.
